

Membership

The Kunstverein Nuremberg – Albrecht Dürer Gesellschaft was founded in 1972 and is dedicated to the exhibiting and communication of contemporary art.

Since 2003, the Kunstverein has been housed in the exhibition spaces contained within the Milchhof Building, erected by Otto Ernst Schweizer in 1931 adjacent to the Wöhrder Lake.

Your membership will provide support for the activities of the Kunstverein. You will be sponsoring emerging art and will also have the opportunity to meet other people interested in art. Membership entitles you to:

- invitations to exhibitions and events staged by the Kunstverein (by post and email)
- free admission to the Kunstverein and every other Kunstverein in Germany
- free admission to the Germanic National Museum, Nuremberg
- the opportunity to participate in art tours (day excursions & excursions lasting two or more days)
- the exclusive opportunity to acquire special editions
- reduced prices for catalogue publications
- a sponsorship certificate covering the annual subscription
